Engage & Elevate:
Take OST to New Heights

This recognition reflects the incredible impact he has had in his program.

Over the past three years, he has grown tremendously and have taken initiative to make sure students are engaged and have meaningful choices each day.

His willingness to introduce new games, STEM activities, and creative projects has elevated the program experience for youth, and his natural enthusiasm encourages them to try new things and stay involved.

As a senior in high school balancing academics, athletics, and his role in the program, he continues to show up as a steady and positive role model.

He builds strong relationships with youth, connects with families during pick-up, and works closely with his team to ensure the program is safe, engaging, and supportive for everyone.
