

New Hampshire Out-of-School Time Convention

Engage & Elevate:
Take OST to New Heights

Across multiple nominations, a consistent theme stood out: her ability to lead with dedication, creativity, and heart while managing the many moving pieces of a high-quality out-of-school time program. She been recognized for her thoughtful coordination of daily operations, her commitment to ensuring access for all students, and her ongoing efforts to secure funding and expand opportunities through grants and community partnerships.

Her leadership has created a program where youth feel safe, supported, and genuinely connected. From offering a wide range of engaging enrichment clubs to ensuring students have access to snacks, transportation, and inclusive programming, her work has removed barriers and opened doors for so many children. The outcomes shared—improvements in attendance, behavior, academic engagement, and a strong sense of belonging—speak volumes about the environment she built.

Her impact extends far beyond the program itself. She has built meaningful relationships with families, hosted community events, and strengthened partnerships that bring valuable experiences directly to youth. Whether coordinating family nights, collaborating with local organizations, or advocating for funding at town meetings, her presence in the community is both visible and impactful.

Her staff also clearly feel supported, valued, and empowered under her leadership. From providing resources and professional development opportunities to fostering a positive, collaborative team culture, she has created an environment where both staff and students can thrive. It was also deeply meaningful to see her unwavering commitment to this work—even while navigating personal challenges. Her strength, positivity, and dedication have not gone unnoticed and are truly inspiring to those around her.
